

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA
BIG STONE GAP DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA)

v.)

SAMUEL SILVA)

Case No. 2:20-cr-17

SCHEDULING ORDER

Based upon the parties proposed scheduling order and based upon the trial date of June 12-23, 2023, the court adopts the following scheduling order:

January 6, 2023:	Completion of Government's disclosures and inspections under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16, Brady , and Giglio .
March 14, 2023:	Government's notices of intent to offer evidence under Fed. R. Evid. 404, 609, or 807. ¹
April 13, 2023:	Completion of Government's expert disclosures and inspections under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16, Brady , and Giglio .
April 28, 2023:	Proposed jury questionnaire.
May 12, 2023:	Defendant's reciprocal expert and non-expert disclosures under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16.
May 22, 2023:	Evidentiary and other motions in limine .
May 29, 2023:	Government's list of witnesses and exhibits.
June 5, 2023:	Government's Jencks material under 18 U.S.C. § 3500.
June 5, 2023:	Proposed jury instructions and verdict forms.

It is so ORDERED.

¹ For all motions, the opposing party's response is due 14 days after service of the motion, and the moving party is permitted to file a reply, which is due 7 days after service of the response. See Local Civil Rule 11.

Entered: November 10, 2022

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'M. Urbanski', with a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

Michael F. Urbanski
Chief United States District Judge